COMMUNICATIONS IN ANALYSIS AND GEOMETRY
Volume 11, Number 5, 2003

Convergence of spectral structures: a functional analytic theory and its applications to spectral geometry

KAZUHIRO KUWAE AND TAKASHI SHIOYA

We present a functional analytic framework of some natural topologies on a given family of spectral structures on Hilbert spaces and study convergence of Riemannian manifolds and their spectral structure induced from the Laplacian. We also consider convergence of Alexandrov s